

Procedures for Dealing with Complaints to Governing Bodies

The Governing Body of Penrhyn-coch and Penllwyn Schools support the principal that good communication, the provision of clear information and straightforward procedures are essential to an open and transparent relationship between a school and its key partners.

The Governing Body will treat concerns or complaints seriously and will respond to them quickly and effectively.

To achieve this objective the Governing Body has approved the following procedures to deal with concerns or complaints from parents, members of staff; governors, pupils, members of the local community and others to ensure that they are clear how they can express concerns and formal complaints, and how they will be responded to.

1. Stages for Handling Complaints from Parents and others

Stage 1

1. Complaint to be made orally or in writing to class teacher or Headteacher
Complainant to be given opportunity to meet the member of staff with whom they have raised the matter or the Complaints Officer (where appointed). Having investigated the issue an indication of the decision reached will usually be conveyed to the complainant within 10 school days.
(If the Headteacher is the first recipient of the complaint a decision will be made whether to delegate consideration to another member of staff under stage 1 or whether to proceed to stage 2)
2. If the complaint cannot be resolved to the satisfaction of the complainant, the complainant will be informed in writing that the matter has been referred to the Headteacher to investigate

Stage 2

3. If the complaint was initially made orally, the matter will have to be put in writing at this stage.
4. The Headteacher will acknowledge the complaint in writing and, provide a copy of the of the complaints procedure and give a target date for providing a response.
5. Arrangements will be made for the complainant to meet the Headteacher and will be allowed to be accompanied by a friend or relative who can speak on their behalf. The Headteacher may also wish to have another person present to witness the discussion.

6. The Headteacher will usually convey the decision in writing to the complainant within 10 school days. If this is not possible to deal with the matter within this time the complainant will be informed of the reason and given a date when consideration is expected to be concluded.

Stage 3

7. If the complainant is not satisfied with the outcome of the above informal stages he/she is entitled to make a formal complaint to the Chairman of the Governing Body.
8. On receipt of the written complaint the Chairman will make arrangements for the clerk to the governing body to acknowledge receipt of the letter, usually within 5 school days and make arrangements for the Complaints Committee of the Governing Body to meet to hear the complaint, usually within 15 school days of receipt of the complaint. The complainant and the person(s) complained against will be invited to provide in advance any written documentation they wish the committee to consider.
9. The purpose of the hearing is to enable members of the Committee to clarify facts and ascertain whether there are grounds for upholding the complaint. All parties involved in the complaint are entitled to provide evidence. This procedure is intended to gain all relevant information and should not become a confrontational process
10. Once all the evidence has been presented the Committee will consider its decision in private.
11. The Committee's decision will usually be sent to the complainant within 5 school days of the hearing, with an explanation of the reasons for the decision.
